Applicants have no record of any drawings filed for the above-referenced patent application on or around 24 December 2002. The drawings referred to in the Notice of Drawing Inconsistency With Specification appear on the PAIR system to be the same drawings filed on 14 May 2001 for patent application serial no. 09/855,188.

In any case, the enclosed formal drawings are the correct drawings for the above-referenced patent application, and these figures are consistent with the Brief Description of the Drawings in the specification.

Respectfully submitted,

Melanie L. Rauch
